

Matthew 21:1-11
Sermon: November 6th, 2011

Know Your Neighbor

1. If you were able to write the script, what in your life (past or present) would you have preferred to be saved from? (Deep OR surface answers accepted)

Know God's Word

1. Reflect on the passage and in one or two sentences give a brief synopsis of the sermon last Sunday. (Write down and discuss any significant points or principles)

2. Read Acts 4:13-29
 - a. What was "unfair" about this story?

 - b. Humanly speaking, what did Peter and John have to be burdened about?

 - c. What, in this story (according to the world's perspective), is contrary to "the good life"?

 - d. Did Peter and John's "King of Peace" forsake them? Why or why not?

 - e. What has their Savior done for them?

Know How to Live

1. Give an example in your life where the "peace that transcends all understanding" has allowed you to make it through a difficult situation WITH PEACE.

And/or,

2. Share something you are going through now where you don't feel God's peace, but want the group to pray for you to receive it.
