

Matthew 21:28-32
Sermon: November 27th, 2011

Know Your Neighbor

1. Write down a couple of examples of ways you see people around you speak with “cheap words”, not really meaning it or living it.

Know God’s Word

1. Reflect on the passage and in one or two sentences give a brief synopsis of the sermon last Sunday. (Write down and discuss any significant points or principles)

2. Read Matthew 26:31-35
 - a. Write down the “cheap words” you hear coming from Peter.

 - b. What brought it out of Peter?

 - c. What do you think is at the root of these “cheap words?” Explain.
(Deceit, pride, anger, manipulation, selfishness, etc... what?)

 - d. How did Jesus deal with these “cheap words?”

3. Read Acts 2:36-41
 - a. Discuss the difference in Peter’s words. What do you think led to the change?

Know How to Live

1. What are some situations you might be tempted to use “cheap words?”

2. What do you think is at the root of why it would be a temptation to you?

Lord, help our words to be few but true and our actions to speak for you!
